

PROTOCOL INFORMATION

Disorder: Shoulder Pain Date: May 4, 2011
 Developed By: Dr . Hao Wu Reviewed By: Dr. Paul Ziemer

PROTOCOL DESCRIPTION

Disorder Description: Shoulder pain is an extremely common complaint, and there are many common causes of this problem, such as bursitis, rotator cuff tendonitis, adhesive capsulitis (frozen shoulder), arthritis, and SLAP lesion.

- Treatment Position:
1. High light 10 min or Low light 15 min over Acromion;
 2. High light 10 min or Low light 15 min over subacromial space;

A common symptom of shoulder sprain is neck stress, if you experience neck stress treat as follows:

High light 10 min or Low light 15 min over affected neck

Note: If shoulder pain persists, seek professional diagnosis.

Treatment Protocol: Time: 20/30mins Position: 2 or 3 Light: High Treatment Interval: 1-2 times/day, 2-4 weeks

Result: Satisfactory Acceptable Desirable Exceptional Fully healed